Fake News Cards!

Relive a Magical Year

Cheat Cards!

Steal Votes from the Incumbent President!

Evidence Cards!

Can the theft be stopped?

A Party Game of Fake News and Vote Theft

It all comes down to the Swing States. This is where the election is determined and where the battle lines are drawn.

You can play either as the Incumbent President, or you can play as the Secretary of State for one of the Swing States that is controlled by the other party. It's all against one. Hasn't it always been?

But the Swing States are determined to win this election. No Matter what it takes. Even if they have to stay up all night counting votes. Even if some vote counters have to stay late and work through the night.

Relive a Magical Time.

This will go down as one of the strangest years in the country's history. And you get a chance to enjoy it again. It's all here. The boat parades. The Pandemic. The Cancel Culture. The Riots. Left-wing Globalists. The Laptop!!

Such Fun!!

And let's not forget the cheating. Mail-in ballot cheating. Poll watcher cheating. Dead guys voting in droves! Can the Incumbent president navigate public opinion, the Main-Stream-Media and win the swing votes he needs? Can he get them back after they've been stolen?
